THE LORD GATHERS THE NATIONS

We believe that the Triune God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – calls the world to worship Him. As a Christian community, we gather together on the first day of each week to worship Him as we are led by the Spirit. As we worship, we bring our praise and our concerns, our joys and our sorrows, our hopes and our troubles.

Reflection on Worship

*It was not nails that held Jesus to that wretched cross;
it was his unqualified resolution, out of love for his Father, to do his Father's will
—and it was his love for sinners like me.
— D.A. Carson*

Call to Worship

based on John 18 & 19

Leader: Come, let us gather again in the shadow of the cross of Christ.

We gather to remember the overwhelming evidence of love's ultimate sacrifice.

Let us commit ourselves to remember the price Jesus Christ paid. Let us live our lives in a way that indicates why this Friday is called "Good."

When I Survey the Wonderful Cross

Text: Isaac Watts; Music: arr. by Lowell Mason

When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died
My richest gain I count but loss
And pour contempt on all my pride

See from His head, His hands, His feet
Sorrow and love flow mingled down
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet
Or thorns compose so rich a crown

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

Words and Music, Stuart Townend

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son, to make a wretch His treasure
How great the pain of searing loss, the Father turns His face away
As wounds which mar the chosen One, bring many sons to glory

Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders
Ashamed I hear my mocking voice, call out among the scoffers
It was my sin that held Him there, until it was accomplished
His dying breath has brought me life, I know that it is finished

I will not boast in anything; no gifts, no power, no wisdom
But I will boast in Jesus Christ; His death and resurrection
Why should I gain from His reward, I cannot give an answer
But this I know with all my heart, His wounds have paid my ransom

Scripture Reading

from Isaiah 53:3-6

Reader 1: He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.
And as one from whom men hide their faces, he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Reader 2: Surely he has borne our grief and carried our sorrows. Yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.

Reader 1: But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities. Upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.

Reader 2: All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned – every one – to his own way.

Reader 1: And the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Good Friday Message

Pastor Tom Luchenbill

In Christ Alone

Words and Music by Keith Getty & Stuart Townend

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light, my strength, my song
This cornerstone, this solid ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm
What heights of love, what depths of peace
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease
My Comforter, my All in All
Here in the love of Christ I stand

In Christ alone, Who took on flesh
Fullness of God in helpless Babe
This gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones He came to save
'Til on the cross as Jesus died
The wrath of God was satisfied
For every sin on Him was laid
Here in the death of Christ I live
